

The Coconino Sun

VOL. XVIII.

FLAGSTAFF, MAY 11, 1901.

No. 19

LOCAL BREVITIES.

School supplies of all kinds at Timerhoff's.

E. S. Clark was a visitor in Phoenix this week.

A line of fine writing tablets and papreties at Timerhoff's.

Sheriff J. A. Johnson made a business trip to Williams last Sunday.

Remember the Racket Store for cheap Chinaware at cost for a short time only.

Joseph S. Amundson, of Evansville, Minn., is stopping in town for a couple of months.

Railroad avenue had quite a metropolitan appearance two or three days during the past week.

Rev. T. C. Moffitt, formerly pastor of the First Presbyterian church here, is visiting in our city this week.

Miss Martha Rhamey, of Saguache, Colorado, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Rhamey, of this city.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

Superintendent Marshall reports that the water supply will be in excess of any previous year on account of the phenomenal fall of snow.

J. A. Vail is having his resort repainted this week and it will look like a parlor in reality when the painters are through decorating it.

Call on the Racket Store for novelties in Chinaware and make your purchases before buying elsewhere. These bargains are being closed out at cost.

Recorder H. C. Hibben received a deed for record of valuable mining property in the Buckskin mountains. The revenue stamps on the same amounted to $500.

The city will put in a water indicator with dial, on the city clerk's desk, connected by electricity with the reservoir, showing the amount of water available at all times for extinguishing fires or for other purposes.

Spring "togs" are now the proper thing. Send to M. J. Keller Co., of Oakland, California, for samples of nobby negligee shirts and summer clothing. Keller's man will visit Flagstaff about every sixty days.

To-morrow evening Rev. S. A. Thomson, superintendent of the mission, will preach in the Methodist church, and will administer holy communion after the sermon. The third quarterly conference will be held on Monday evening presided over by Dr. Thomson. Every department of the local church is in an active and flourishing condition.

A peculiar and serious accident happened to John Pollard, at Greenlaw's mill, last Monday, while operating the edger. A small pine knot flew with terrific velocity from the saw which has 1500 revolutions per minute, striking him on top of the head and breaking a hole in the skull. Dr. Robinson, who performed a very skillful operation on Pollard, found a portion of the pine knot underneath the skull which he removed when Pollard immediately recovered consciousness.

Typewriter papers in various weights at Timerhoff's.

George Hochderffer came in from his ranch on Monday.

It keeps them well and makes them lay—Timerhoff's poultry powder.

C. H. McClure came in from the Grand Canyon the first of the week.

Bob Walker, our genial deputy sheriff, paid his respects to Williams this week.

Hank Ward came in from the Grand Canyon this week to visit his wife who is ill with pneumonia.

Business seems to be improving judging from the pleasant smile on the faces of our business men.

Albert Hudson, who has been been very low with pneumonia for the past two weeks, is improving nicely.

E. L. Clancy, an employe of the Arizona Lumber and Timber company, has gone to California on a visit.

Clark Hint and wife left Monday for a visit to their old home in Indiana. Clark was at one time a compositor on THE SUN.

Agents wanted, ladies or men, to sell gilt-edge oil stocks. Queen Oil Co., 916 Market street, San Francisco, California.

The Racket Store is closing out its line of Chinaware and if you want anything in this line at a bargain call and see the stock.

Miss Jessica Frazier, daughter of ex-Attorney-General C. M. Frazier, of Phoenix, who has been employed as a teacher for school district No. 8, arrived in Flagstaff Wednesday.

Dr. Hart will remove next Tuesday to the Bank Hotel building, where he will occupy the parlor and rooms No. 1 and 2. The doctor will have more commodious quarters in his new location.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Campbell, died Friday morning of meningitis. The funeral took place at the residence on Friday at 4 p. m. The services were conducted by J. H. Henry, of the Methodist church.

Train No. 8 eastbound passenger was about three hours late on Friday. She had quite a number of Uncle Sam's defenders aboard, who were returning from the Philippines. They showed signs of life in a tropical climate.

The child of Joseph Moritz, of Bellemont, died last week. The funeral was held from the Catholic church in this city. Rev. F. M. Carroll, of Winslow, read an impressive burial service. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Moritz sympathize with them in their sad bereavement.

Jeff Thompson, who has been for the past month employed as brakeman of one of the logging crews on the railroad operated in connection with the Arizona Lumber and Timber company's mammoth institution, has resigned his position there and is now working for J. A. Vail.

"A Woodland Wooing" is the title of a new song recently published by Thomas M. Donaldson, who has received many flattering notices as a composer of songs. Mr. Donaldson will be remembered by our readers as having been agent of the Santa Fe Pacific railroad at Bellemont for a number of years. He is at present a resident of Oskaloosa, Iowa.

George U. Young was in town last Monday.

Henry Ashurst was here Monday on court business.

Timerhoff's poultry powder cures chicken cholera.

J. T. Lindsley, of St. Louis, was registered at the Weatherford during the week.

Attorney Loy, who has been to the Verde valley on business, returned home this week.

Mrs. G. M. Hanna and daughter returned last Saturday from a visit to Southern California.

An overland party came in from Phoenix this week and will enjoy the mountain air for the summer.

Village school shoes for boys and girls. The best school shoe ever brought to Flagstaff are sold by the New York Store.

A Mexican circus was one of the attractions in Flagstaff the first of the week. The parade was short and the music abominable.

Three hundred laborers will soon be put to work near this place by the railroad company constructing the new pipe line from Oak Creek.

Late tests of the water which is served to the patrons of hydrants demonstrates the fact that Flagstaff has strictly "agua pura" in which no microbes exist.

Mrs. S. T. Elliott, who has been home to Canada for a visit is now en route on her return trip. She will be accompanied by her niece who will make Flagstaff her future home.

J. A. Vail, of Flagstaff, recently rounded up a lot of range horses and drove them to California, where he expected to sell them. John Moody went in charge of the drive.—Range News.

F. M. Friesall made a flying trip to the Needles for the purpose of investigating some valuable copper properties belonging to his brother, Dr. Friesall, a well known capitalist of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Spring is here with all its glory and with it brings forth the local bicyclist. Flagstaff has again become infected with the cycle craze. Arrangements are under way for another big wheel club. Look out for a century run.

N. V. Cartmell returned Monday from a three month's visit to Indiana. He will settle up his business in Flagstaff and take possession of a large farm in Monticello, Ind., which he has come into possession of as his portion of the estate of his father lately deceased.

For Rent—On July 1, 1901, brick building on the corner of Railroad avenue and Leroux street. Good frost-proof cellar 25x60 feet, store room 50x60 feet, second story 25x60 feet. Water and sewer connections. Best location in town. For particulars apply to Julius Aubineau, Flagstaff, Arizona.

The Santa Fe engineering corps composed of the following gentlemen, registered at the Weatherford yesterday: R. J. Wrey, Williams; J. C. Barton, San Francisco; E. E. Ball, Chas. W. Miller, jr., L. E. Bacon, A. W. Van Fleet, Thos. F. Maddock, R. H. Chubb, J. A. Cash, Williams. They have completed the survey for the Oak Creek pipe line.

Miss Jessie Todd left this week for her old home in Los Angeles.

Mrs. L. W. Stanwood, of Boston, Mass., is registered at the Weatherford.

Mrs. George Hoxworth left Monday for Los Angeles to attend the fiesta in that city.

Donations are now in order for the Fourth of July celebration. Be liberal and make the affair a success.

Fire Insurance—The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of the largest American and English companies.

The Imperial Steam Laundry of Albuquerque, is represented in Flagstaff by Geo. E. Palmer. Give him your laundry.

Subscribe for a live newspaper and take your job work to an artistic job printing establishment—THE SUN can accommodate you.

Miss Lytte Screver, from "the greatest mining camp on earth," Butte, Montana, is taking in the sights in and around Flagstaff.

Remember that the Racket Store is going out of business and is selling Chinaware below cost in order to close out what it has on hand.

Improvements are being made at the Lowell observatory which will give the attendants of that institution more commodious quarters.

For Sale—Hoosier grain drill, 6-inch hoe, in first-class condition. Price reasonable. Drill may be seen at my ranch, three miles north of town. W. H. Anderson.

C. W. Chamberlain, a tourist from Boston, the city of beans and frigidity, is thawing out in our genial climate and visiting cliff dwellers and other points of interest.

C. Robinson, the genial and accommodating cashier of the Arizona Central Bank, left this week for a month's vacation, which he will spend at his old home in Indianapolis.

P. J. Dean, the blacksmith at Cameron's logging camp, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Dean is an old Coloradoan and has shaped iron in many camps in the snowy ranges of the centennial state.

Charles Morrow, who went east in charge of two carloads of horses for L. L. Harmon, returned Thursday. He reports the horse market lively for bridleside animals which will pass inspection for the United States army.

Old members of the Flagstaff Gun Club and all others interested in its reorganization and a shotgun tournament for July 4th, are requested to meet at the office of E. S. Gosney, Saturday evening, May 11, at 8 o'clock sharp.

On Wednesday morning a large number of our citizens had the pleasure of shaking hands with Governor Nash, of Ohio, who passed through on train No. 7, accompanied by his staff and a large party of friends, on the way to San Francisco to meet President McKinley, and also to be present at the launching of the battleship Ohio, which has just been built and is ready for launching upon the bosom of the great Pacific. The governor appeared to enjoy the informal reception and he knows how to shake hands in the old eastern way.